

Negotiation Strategies That Stop A Bully

Spin the wheel and take a chance.

Deciding to confront a bully can be like spinning the wheel of chance. You're not sure of the outcome.

Not confronting a bully will embolden him to bully you more. You must confront him!

Should I confront the bully or not?

1. Understand the way the bully thinks. Doing so will give you insight into defeating him.
2. Don't let a bully get away with bullying you. You can have others join you and your efforts to combat the bully. Never view yourself as powerless.
3. Use the same tactics a bully uses against others against him. Do so in surreptitious ways if need be.

Greg Williams,
The Master Negotiator &
Body Language Expert

You're always negotiating!

Get more insightful information that you can use to improve all aspects of your life for free ...

Go to www.TheMasterNegotiator.com/greg-williams and sign up to receive insightful information weekly that will increase your negotiating and reading body language skills.